Martin Brennan is special counsel in the New York office of Milbank in the Alternative Investments Practice.

Mr. Brennan has a broad range of experience in capital markets and banking transactions covering securitizations and structured finance transactions. Previously based in Milbank's London office, Mr. Brennan also has experience advising on the UK/EU regulatory framework related to such regimes, with a particular focus on the EU Securitisation Regulation and Market Abuse regimes and their impact on EU and US structured finance transactions.

Primary Focus & Experience

Mr. Brennan has developed a broad finance practice, covering structured finance across multiple asset classes (from ABS to CLOs) and infrastructure projects, together with other bespoke structured lending transactions. His securitization experience includes the representation of sponsors, managers and arrangers on various high profile RMBS, covered bond, credit card and CLO transactions, with a particular focus on regulatory aspects such as EU risk retention compliance.

Mr. Brennan has also advised on a number of infrastructure structured funding platforms for European airport and train operators, and advised bookrunners on various European project bonds.
